

Sketching Inuit Sea Creatures with Heather Campbell

JOIN US FOR THE LIVE PREMIERE ON JUNE 10TH AT 7:00 PM EDT

<https://youtu.be/rhAklgwjVc>

If you cannot make the live premiere, not to worry the link will be available for you to watch until the end of June.

Learn to sketch Sea Creatures with Heather Campbell. Heather will talk about the importance of these sea creatures to Inuit culture. You'll learn to draw a whale, seal, walrus and polar bear. This is an opportunity to be taught sketching techniques and skills for the beginner and experienced sketchers.

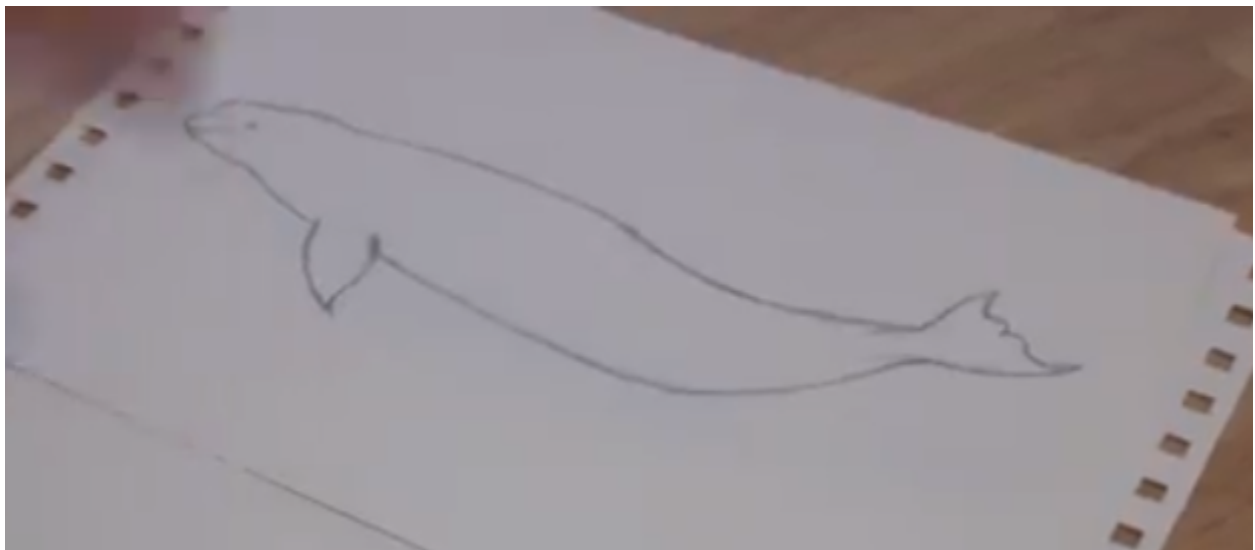

Heather Campbell is originally from Rigolet, Nunatsiavut, NL and holds a BFA from Memorial University of Newfoundland. Campbell was Curatorial Assistant at the Inuit Art Centre, Ottawa, ON for a number of years, and was on the board of directors of Gallery 101 artist run centre as well as the board of the Artist Run Centres and Collectives of Ontario. Currently she is the Strategic Initiatives Director at the Inuit Art Foundation. Campbell's art has been in a number of group exhibitions, most recently the touring group exhibition Nunatsiavut - Our Beautiful Land at le guilde in Montreal, QC.

Her work can be found in many collections including the Canadian Museum of History, Gatineau, QC, Crown-Indigenous Relations and Northern Affairs Canada in Gatineau, QC, and Carleton University, Ottawa, Ontario. <http://www.campbellart.ca/>

Supply list

- Sketching pencils
- Coloured pencils
- Sketching paper

Remember that you can take your time when watching the video, you can pause, or re-watch the video if needed. The video will be available until the end of June.

We want to see your finished product, post a picture and tag us #ssif2021